

The Crib at Burnley Central Library presents...

Animation Week

Are you aged 13-19,
and have a creative bug,
that won't stop itching?

Lancashire Libraries Cultural Youth Offer is looking for a group of talented young people to create a funny and original animated film. The film will be used to encourage young people all over the country to use libraries more!

The project will run from 10am - 3pm, on 15th - 19th August 2011, from The Crib at Burnley Central Library. Successful applicants will get to complete their Bronze Arts Award!

"This is a great opportunity for young Burnley people to exercise their creative abilities on a live project and get an insight into some of the career options afforded by the BBC's relocation to the North West." says Kelly Fort, Director of Kelly's Eye Animation. Kelly has worked on many BBC productions and will deliver the project with comedy writer John Warburton, in partnership with BBC Outreach, and Burnley Arts Development.

Animation Week

To apply for Animation Week, just complete this form and pop it in the Animation Week box at The Crib, Burnley Central Library, or return by post to:

Rachel Hawthorn
Burnley Arts Development
Mechanics
Manchester Road
Burnley
BB11 1BH
before 22nd July 2011.

Name: _____

Age: _____

Address & postcode: _____

Contact number: _____

e-mail: _____

What do you enjoy most? (Tick one)

Creative writing

Design & illustration

Music & sound production

In a few words, explain why you would love to be part of our production team:

Successful applicants will be notified by August 1st.

For more information about the Bronze Arts Award, contact Rachel Hawthorn on: 01282 664413, or visit www.artsaward.co.uk