Accrington Stanley is sending out an SOS to all football fans!

Accrington Stanley now has until Saturday 24th October 2009 to clear the remaining tax debt of £308,000 or face the very real threat of a winding up order issued by HMRC. So far the club has been exposed to a wealth of support with a great amount of funds raised plus foundations have been set for more revenue platforms to help the SOS initiative over the next few weeks.

Please help Save Our Stanley by getting involved and donating what you can.

Whether you're a football fan, a business or part of a sports or community group please help the historic football club remain open by supporting the SOS initiative. There are many ways to get involved with Save Our Stanley from donating via the website and phone lines to increasing revenue coming into the company through hospitality visits, match day tickets, sponsorships and advertising.

How to show your support:

There are lots of ways of supporting the Save Our Stanley initiative over the next 8 weeks...

SOS 1: Come to the game.

A loyal Stanley fan? Bring your friends and family to the next game.

From the area? Get down to the Crown Ground and enjoy what's on your doorstep.

Have affection for the famous side? Come and enjoy what the club is all about.

Support a nearby team? Come and watch some live League Two action, especially if fixtures don't clash or you're unable to attend your side's away games.

The SOS Team are currently creating and confirming a fundraising calendar. Keep a look out on this website for the different fundraising events taking place over the next few weeks. Once each activity has been confirmed it will be posted on SaveOurStanley.co.uk.

Thank you for all the sponsorship and fundraising activities that are taking place across the region and, in fact, the country! To help you along the way, CLICK HERE to download an SOS Sponsorship form.

Hannah raids her piggy bank to help save Accrington Stanley

Clitheroe schoolgirl Hannah Holland has emptied her piggybank to help save an East Lancashire football club. The nine-year-old Pendle Primary School pupil donated just over £8 to Accrington Stanley's SOS appeal.

Wearing a t-shirt with the words "I emptied my piggy bank to save Stanley, what will YOU do?" she presented the money before the game. Hannah then watched the match from the directors' seats, and saw her side win 2-1.

Her mum Katie said: "It is an amazing feeling to have a child wanting to save Accrington Stanley without a second thought, willing to give her pocket money up to help the SOS fund."
